MATCHDAY GUIDE

Welcome to Loftus Road

Welcome to Loftus Road! We want to make sure you have an enjoyable experience watching your team play, and have created this 'Visiting Supporters Matchday Guide' to help you get the most out of your visit to W12.

The guide walks you through buying your match ticket in advance, how to get to Loftus Road, and what there is to do once you arrive at the stadium.

We finish off with some interesting trivia about the ground and some useful information on local attractions.

Your match tickets

Understanding your tickets

Your match tickets tell you a lot of useful information for matchday, which is illustrated on the diagram to the right. Please keep your tickets with you at all times when at the stadium and ensure the barcodes are not folded.

Any Queries

Any queries that you have prior to the game, please contact your club's box office for advice. If you have any queries on the day, please visit the Box Office, which is located on the South Africa Road side of the stadium. The Box Office team will be able to show you your seats on their computer screens and direct you to the relevant turnstile block.

Buying Tickets

Loftus Road Trivia

Loftus Road was first used on 11 October 1904 by Shepherd's Bush FC, an amateur side that was disbanded during the First World War.

QPR's nomadic history has seen the club travel to 14 different grounds. Despite this, the club have only had 2 stadiums since joining the Football League in 1920; Loftus Road and White City Stadium.

In 1981 the ground became the first stadium in British professional football to have an artificial pitch of Omniturf installed, which remained until 1988.

Loftus Road hosted Barry McGuigan's fight with Eusebio Pedroza in 1985 for the WBA Featherweight Championship.

QPR have ground shared Loftus Road with 2 other sports clubs: Fulham Football Club from 2002-2004 and London Wasps (Rugby Union) 1996-2002.

Tourist Attractions

Shopping

Westfield London is a large shopping centre just a short walk from White City, Wood Lane & Shepherd's Bush stations. It is the equivalent of around 30 football pitches in size, and contains a cinema, a large selection of restaurants & bars, and flagship stores of some of the UK's most popular retailers.

Theatre

London's world renowned West End theatre district is just a few stops away with some of the theatres located on the Central Line near to Oxford Circus and Tottenham Court Road. Then simply take the Northern line to Leicester Square for other theatres and experience the vibrant atmosphere the West End has to offer.

Accommodation

Some great accommodation options for fans visiting Loftus Road, are the Ibis London in Shepherd's Bush, the Travelodge hotel near Tottenham Court Road, and the Premier Inn Hammersmith near Hammersmith tube station. However if you're looking to make your journey to W12 that little bit more special, the K-West hotel in Shepherds Bush is just a 20 minute walk from the ground. Another alternative would be the Dorsett Hotel, a luxurious Grade II listed building located in Shepherd's Bush with 317 rooms.

Restaurants

Uxbridge Road offers a wide range of restaurants which includes favourites such as Nando's and KFC, as well as The Queen Adelaide which offers a wide selection of food. Westfield Shopping Centre is also a good bet for food, including a Burger King, Pizza Express, Nando's, and Chip & Fish.
